Re: NV-2 General Election Polling Results

Change Research, a national research firm that has conducted more than 3,000 polls of over 3 million people since 2017, conducted a survey in Nevada’s 2nd congressional district March 9-12, 2024. A total of 735 likely general election voters were interviewed online, and the survey has a modeled margin of error of 3.9 percentage points. Post-stratification weighting was performed on age, race/ethnicity, sex, education, region, and 2020 presidential vote. Weighting parameters were based on voter file data. See full methodological details here.

Republican Congressman Mark Amodei Is a Weak Incumbent

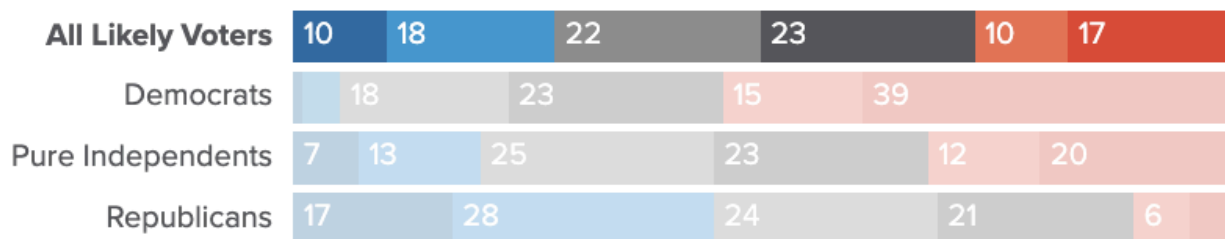

Longtime member of Congress Mark Amodei is not particularly well-known or well-liked among likely 2024 voters. Just 56% know him well enough to have an opinion of the Congressman, who has been a legislator since he was first elected to the Nevada Assembly in 1996. Among those who do have an opinion, the proportion of voters who view Amodei favorably (28%) is equivalent to the proportion who view him unfavorably (27%), and those who view him favorably don’t feel strongly about him: just 10% of the 28% have a very favorable opinion. In contrast, half (49%) of likely voters hold a favorable opinion of Donald Trump, including 33% who view Trump very favorably.

Likely Voters Don't Feel Strongly About Amodei

How favorable are your feelings about Mark Amodei?

● Very Fav ● Smwt Fav ● Neutral ● Never Heard Of ● Smwt Unfav ● Very Unfav

Even Republican voters are lukewarm on Amodei. Just over half (55%) know him well enough to have an opinion, and only 17% hold a very favorable opinion of the Congressman.

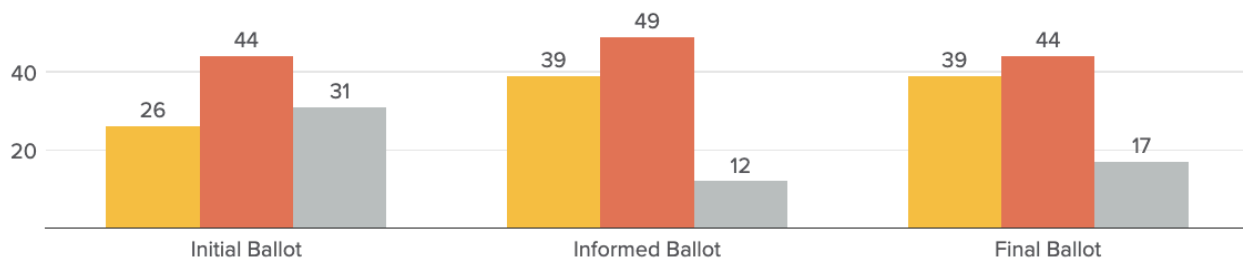

Independent Challenger Greg Kidd Is Poised to Gain Significant Ground Against Amodei

Independent candidate Greg Kidd, a successful fintech businessman with experience as a senior analyst at the Federal Reserve, trails Amodei on the initial ballot, 26% to 44%. But with one in three (31%) likely voters undecided, and with both candidates relatively unknown (just 6% of likely voters know Kidd well enough to have an opinion of him), this race is open for movement.

Kidd Narrows Amodei's Lead to Just 5% in Balanced Spending Simulation

CHANGE RESEARCH™

● Kidd ● Amodei ● Undecided

After reading balanced biographical statements on both candidates, Kidd closes the initial gap to 10 points. Simulating a balanced spending environment with 3 positive messages on each candidate, 3 negatives on Kidd and 4 negatives on Amodei, Amodei's lead narrows to just 5 points: 44% to Kidd's 39%, with 17% undecided.

The Path to Victory for Greg Kidd

Key to a Kidd victory is speaking to Amodei's out-of-step issue positions and offering northern Nevadans a fresh alternative to Washington insider Mark Amodei. Consolidate Democrats and Independent voters around women's reproductive freedom and other personal liberties. Rally around Republican voters' intense desire for congressional term limits (90% of likely voters in the district say they are more likely to vote for a candidate who will impose congressional term limits) while highlighting Kidd's outsider vision—and plan—for creating and sustaining northern Nevada's economic future. With adequate resources behind communication efforts, all portions of the electorate are ripe for movement toward Kidd over Amodei.

CANDIDATE BIOS & REBALLOT

Please read the following statements about two candidates for the U.S. House of Representatives.
[ROTATE, SHOW CANDIDATE HEADSHOTS]

Independent Greg Kidd (Crystal Bay, NV) is a successful business leader, cycling and outdoor enthusiast, and a true pioneer in the best Nevada tradition. After taking his first company public when he was in his 30s, he accepted a public sector role as a senior analyst at the Federal Reserve while making seed investments in Twitter, Square, Ripple, and Coinbase. His non-profit background is with Outward Bound and the National Outdoor Leadership School. He loves Nevada and its rich mining, hospitality and recreation industries, and if elected pledges to bring more high value industries and high-paying jobs to the state. Greg Kidd is pro-choice, pro-empowerment, pro-development with a "get stuff done" attitude about making Northern Nevada the #1 workplace and lifestyle destination in the country.

Republican Mark Amodei (Carson City, NV) is an accomplished lawyer, former president of the Nevada Mining Association, former Army officer, and a lifelong Nevadan. He served 14 years in the Nevada state legislature before he was elected to Congress in 2010. As our district's voice in Washington, he advocates for policy solutions that protect life, preserve the right to keep and bear arms, secure the border, ensure American energy independence, and save the Silver State's mining and agriculture industries from woke environmental policies. Congressman Amodei has the experience and the conservative values we need in Washington to push back against the far-Left, progressive, woke, job-killing Green New Deal and the countless liberal policies that will devastate the economy and Nevada families.

MESSAGING & REBALLOT

[ROTATE POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE MESSAGES]

These are some things that supporters are saying about the candidates for U.S. House of Representatives. How convincing is each statement as a reason to support that candidate? [RANDOMIZE] [Very persuasive | Somewhat persuasive | Not too persuasive | Not persuasive at all]

- Greg Kidd is unapologetic in his support for women's reproductive healthcare, standing firm in the belief that personal health decisions should remain between women, their doctors and those they love and trust.
- In an era of partisan polarization, Greg Kidd is a true Independent. He has supported and voted for both Democrats and Republicans in the past and will pursue great policy ideas based on their merits, not based on party politics.
- Greg Kidd is not your typical politician. He is a job-creator and successful businessman with meaningful connections to the tech and green energy industries that will bring jobs and economic opportunity to the people of Nevada's 2nd Congressional district.
- Congressman Amodei has been working hard for Nevada's 2nd Congressional District since 2011. He has sponsored over a dozen bills and amendments that were passed on the House floor and will continue to use his expertise and relationships to be our voice in Washington.
- Mark Amodei will fight back against Joe Biden and the Democrats' woke policy agenda that is devastating our economy and making it harder for Nevada families to make ends meet.

- As a former Army officer, Mark Amodei has been a consistent advocate for getting veterans the services and benefits they deserve, like the legislation he successfully passed that got a Vietnam veteran monument installed at Arlington National Cemetery.

Here are some things you might learn about the candidates for U.S. House of Representatives. How concerning is each of the following statements? [RANDOMIZE] [Very concerning | Somewhat concerning | Not too concerning | Not concerning at all]

- Greg Kidd is a Californian who bought a property on Lake Tahoe just three years ago. He's not a Nevadan and wouldn't know the first thing about representing us in Congress.
- Greg Kidd is a member of the ultrawealthy class. He got rich as an early investor in Twitter and other Silicon Valley startups and has no idea what life is like for regular Nevadans.
- Greg Kidd claims to be an Independent but is in fact registered to vote as a Republican.
- Mark Amodei is a career politician who has been in office for nearly 30 years. He's part of the dysfunction in Washington, with zero fresh ideas or solutions.
- By voting in line with his party 95% of the time, Mark Amodei shows an inability to think independently. He lacks courage, merely echoing what party leaders like MAGA Mike Johnson say instead of actually representing us.
- Mark Amodei doesn't trust women to make their own reproductive healthcare decisions. He has consistently voted against abortion rights and promises to continue voting his extreme anti-abortion beliefs.
- Instead of joining his Republican colleagues in supporting the bi-partisan CHIPS Act, Amodei voted no, standing in the way of billions of dollars of investment in high paying jobs that will ensure America defeats China in the race for the future.
